Description

The "Made in NY" Production Assistant (PA) Training Program is designed to provide individuals from diverse communities with training for entry-level positions in film production and access to employers in New York City's production industry, and to teach production assistants how to work collaboratively with local communities when they shoot on location throughout the five boroughs. The "Made in NY" PA Training Program is administered by NYC's Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment (MOME).

WHO DOES THIS PROGRAM AIM TO SERVE? Unemployed and low-income New York City residents.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS/ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS PROGRAM? "Made in NY" is an employment opportunity that requires a 2 year commitment. While no previous production experience is required, due to the competitive application process, there are multiple eligibility requirements (e.g, at least 18 years old, valid driver's license, etc.).

HAS THIS PROGRAM BEEN SUSPENDED DUE TO COVID-19? No. However, due to COVID-19, the "Made in NY" PA Training program is continuing information sessions online only. Please check "Made in NY" PA Assistant Training Program's website for up-to-date changes.
