Description

CUNY campus counseling centers support the academic mission of the university and the academic success of students by providing high quality counseling and mental health services to students and consultative services to faculty and staff.Â

HAS THIS PROGRAM BEEN SUSPENDED DUE TO COVID-19? No. However, due to COVID-19, counseling services have moved to a virtual platform. To locate the counseling center of a specific campus, please visit www.cuny.edu/current-students/student-affairs/student-services/counseling/campus-centers. For updates on CUNY's response to COVID-19, please visitÂ www.cuny.edu/coronavirus. For additional resources to support students impacted by COVID-19, CUNY has provided "CUNY Continuity for Students."

ABOUT CUNY: The City University of New York (CUNY) has 24 modern campuses spanning the five boroughs of New York, including; Senior Colleges, Community Colleges, and Graduate Schools.Â

Providing a quality, accessible education, regardless of background or means, has been CUNYâ€™s mission since 1847. Every year, hundreds of thousands of students â€“ including a record 274,000 degree-credit students â€“ choose The City University of New York for a multitude of reasons that can be summed up as one: opportunity.

The Universityâ€™s seven community colleges provide a high-quality education through associate degree programs that prepare students for transfer to senior colleges or entry into professional careers. The CUNY Graduate Center offers more than 30 doctoral programs. CUNY School of Public Health and Health Policy, a collaboration of four CUNY institutions, offers masterâ€™s and doctoral degrees. The CUNY School of Law is recognized as the nationâ€™s premier public-interest law school.
