Goodwill Industries of Greater New York & Northern New Jersey, Inc.

Category: - Employment

Goodwill Industries empowers individuals with disabilities and other barriers to employment to gain independence through the power of work. We provide employment support and rehabilitation in comfortable, nonjudgmental environments. Programs that offer job training, workforce re-entry assistance and career counseling help New Yorkers overcome barriers to employment that might include lack of experience, language barriers, or disabilities. Goodwill placement services prioritize the background, interests and skills of each person to maximize their success. This approach helps move thousands of individuals towards independence each year. Known for our success in helping persons with disabilities find jobs, our services also empower new immigrants and refugees, unskilled, unemployed and underemployed individuals, U.S. veterans, ex-offenders, and underserved youth to gain employment. We also offer special programs that focus on helping people who are on public assistance find work. In fact, every 15 minutes of every business day, staff from our 70 programs at approximately 30 sites help another person earn a good job.

HAVE GOODWILL'S SERVICES BEEN SUSPENDED DUE TO COVID-19? Due to COVID-19, all Goodwill NY/NJ Stores and Outlet locations are closed. Howie the Harp (HTH) Peer Training Program

Category: - Employment

The Howie the Harp (HTH) Peer Training Program is both a job training academy for peers, located in Harlem, and a training model that can be replicated, under license, by other service providers. The HTH Program is application-based and includes curriculum based classroom training, internship placements and competitive employment obtainment support.

WHO DOES THIS PROGRAM AIM TO SERVE? NYC Residents with a mental health diagnosis who have earned a High School diploma (or GED/TASC equivalent).

HAS THIS PROGRAM BEEN SUSPENDED DUE TO COVID-19? Yes. The HTH Peer Training Program has been suspended due to the COVID-19 pandemic. No applications are being accepted or considered. Please check HTH Peer Training Program's website for up-to-date changes.

ABOUT THE FOUNDER OF HOWIE THE HARP This program was named in honor of Community Access's™ first Director of Advocacy, Howard Geld, who, after spending two years in mental health facilities in 1968, demanded to know why his psychiatric condition, and the label "ex-mental patient," had come to define who he was. Addressing this sense of injustice propelled him to the forefront of a burgeoning patient rights movement with a fundamental philosophy, which, to this day, Community Access shares: to transform the treatment system, you need to transform its workforce.
